

SAT: Achieving Higher Participation

Mudassir Mayet

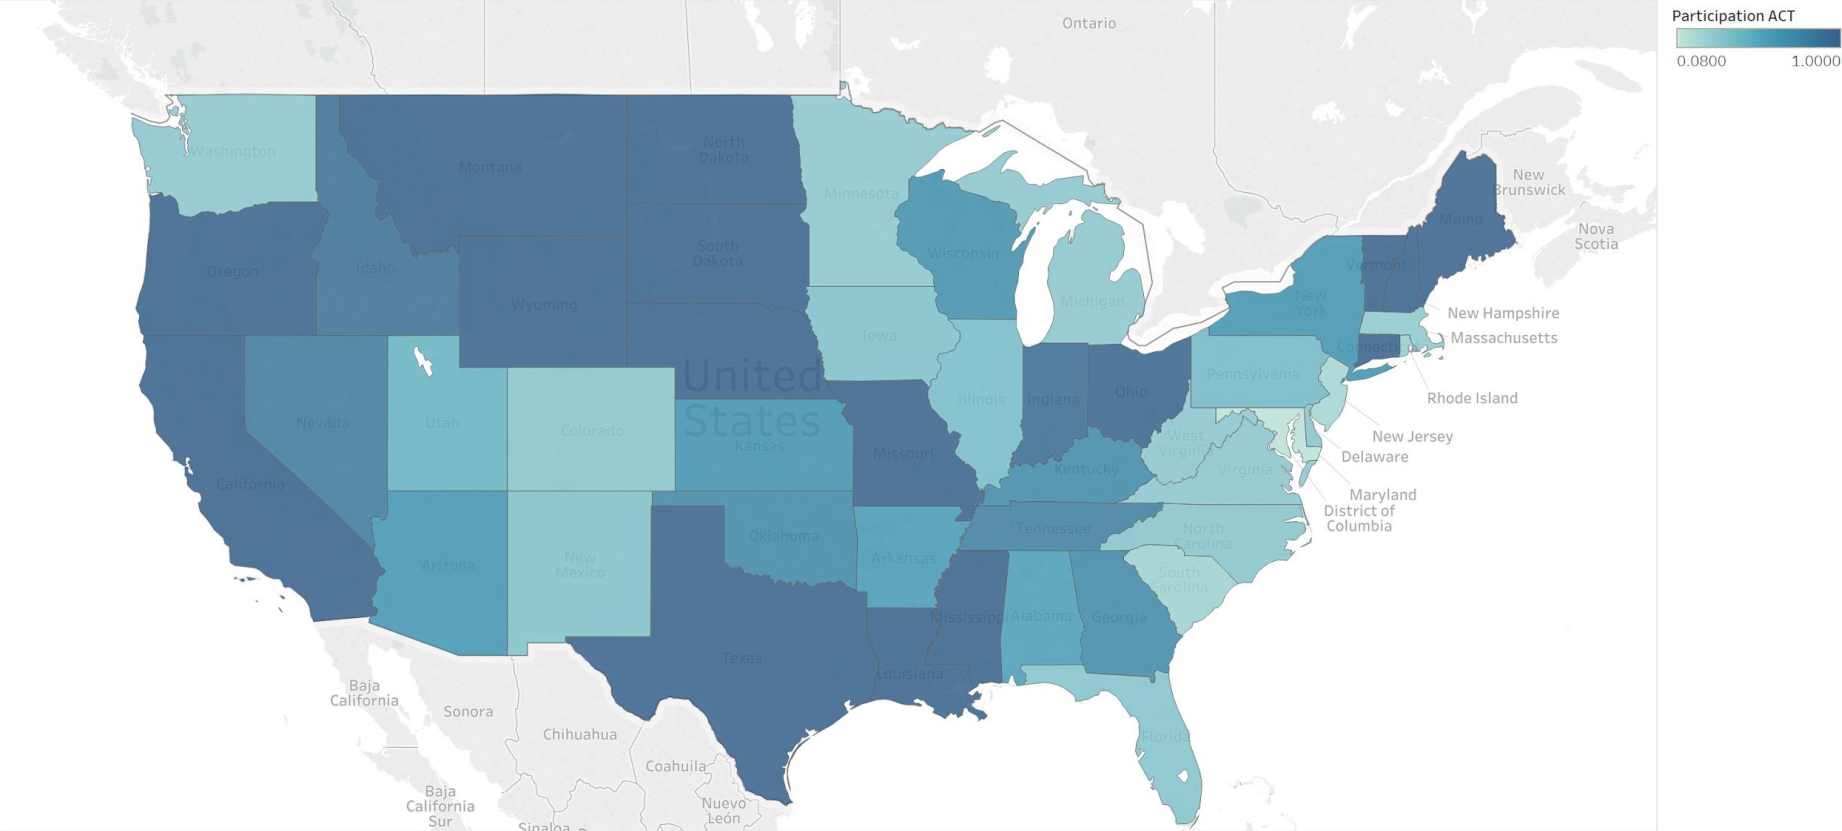

A dark blue diagonal gradient bar that starts from the bottom left and extends towards the top right, covering the lower half of the slide.

SAT Participation

SAT Participation Across the US

ACT Participation

ACT Participation Across the US

60%

of states have a higher ACT Participation than SAT

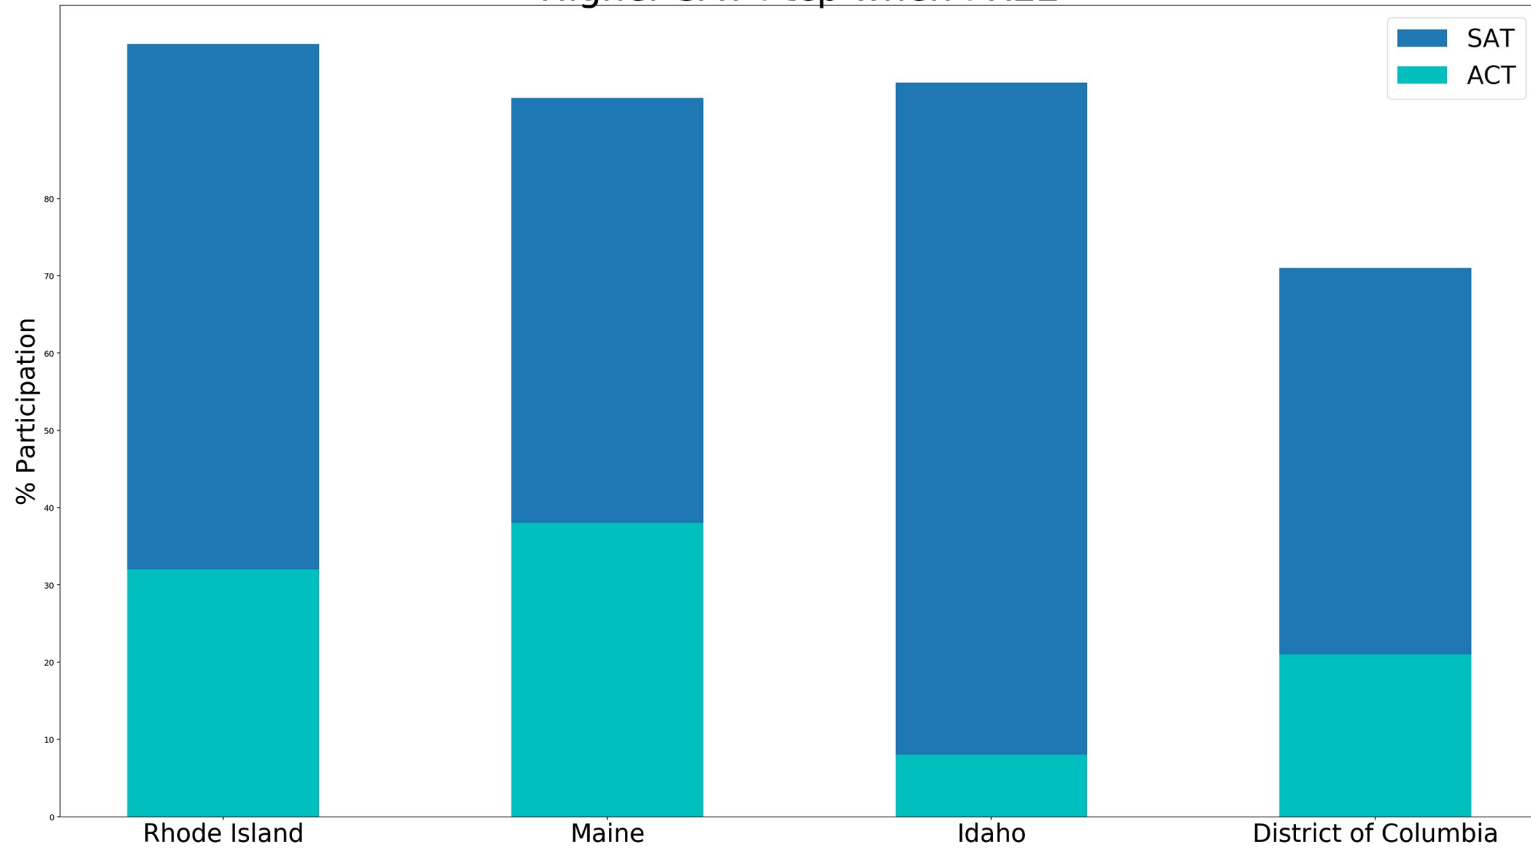

Why?

- 17 states require the SAT to be taken
- 17 states require the ACT to be taken
- 3 states must choose 1 (66% chose the ACT)
- 4 states have optional, but free SATs

What's the fix?

FREE

Higher SAT Ptcp when FREE

Students will take free tests

27 States

that don't force just the SAT, ACT, or offer the SAT for free. Target these states with free tests, and increase participation.

They are: Alaska, Arizona, California, District of Columbia, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Nebraska, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, Texas, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia